This asshole thought it was his turn to cross lanes into my right of way lanes. Then give me a look of a gesture with his open palm upwards like, why? I had to rewind the film to see. Then he flips me off. Typical misogynist, and Mexican misogynist. I don't owe you shit asshole. The look on my face is that I didn't even know the guy was turning because I was watching out for this transient female crossing the lanes, and he was across the street looking like he was turning left.

Asshole, flipped me off for some reason for going slowly as a transient female crossed the road, 4WAW305, Ford Escape 443 PM on the way to client Laura's house by my house. A Mexican in early 20s late teens, chubby, longer hair like a hipster with glasses. I have no idea why, but going to canvas the neighborhood looking for this vehicle.
